Resume Fairy

Provide resumes that clients dream up under their pillows while they sleep. This involves deciphering each client's dream with specialized tools and producing it for the client before she or he wakes. To accomplish this a template is used to convert structured plain text into a nice looking resume.

Curriculum Vitae, LLC

July 2004 - October 2016

Word Smith | April 2010 – October 2016

Hammered out words to produce curriculum vitae for clients. Corrected errors detected by the typo snipers.

Developed a resume template the separated layout and content so word smiths can focus on the important things: hammering out words.

Typo Sniper | July 2004 – April 2010

Analyzed the quality of curriculum vitae produced by the word smiths. Documents that contained errors and typos were sent back for corrections.

Improved efficiency by providing error correction tools early in the process, such as spell check.
